Rojestvensky's Warships Coaling Off the Detectives Sure They Have Ambassador Porter's Great Cuyos Isles, While His Scouts Dodge About to Get Sight of Togo's Fighting Squadron.

Despatches from yarjous points to-day add to the interest attaching Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet. Berlin sends an authoritative statement Three Men and Two Women that the Russian ships are very probably at the Cuyos Islands, part of the Philippines, taking on coal preparatory to finishing the voyage to Vladi-

Manila reports that Rear-Admiral Train, of the American Asiatic has received a dispatch from Saigon saying that Rojestvensky's hospital ship has put in at that point with many wounded aboard.

This would indicate that a battle has been fought, but Tokio and St. Petersburg lack news of a sea clash.

BERLIN, April 14.—Admiral Rojestvensky's squedron is believed by intelligence division of the Germany Navy Department to be lying off Guyes islands, eighty miles south of Mindoro, Philippine Islands, residence of Roy Joyce, the young bartender stabled to death in the riot in Toby's rathekeller. The German Navy Department received, in a telegram to-day, from of the East Indian ports an indication that the Russians, when off the end of Cochin-China, April 11, changed their course and headed a course which would bring them to the Cuyos islands in the northern rt of the Sulu Sea, eight hundred miles distant, in four days at the rate One Hundredth street station and eight knots an hour.

The Cuyos islands lie tactically in such a position that the approaches easily be watched by the Russian scouts.

Three cruisers, it was added, had been detached, presumably for a diveron the coasts of Japan, probably in the hope of calling off Admiral

MANILA, April 14.—Rear-Admiral Train, in command of the American set in Asiatic waters, received a telegram at 3 o'clock this afternoon from a arrival there of the Russian hospital ship Orel at 8 o'clock on the morns of April 18.

The Orel had many wounded o. board.

TOKIO, April 14—Noon.—The Navai Department pronounces the reports of a navai engagement recently off Saigon to be unfounded.

Later to-day it was said here that the news of the arrival of the Russians Monday at Saigon was the first intimation received here that a naval battle had been fought.

Going into an adjoining room, the doctor arranged the collar of his frock coat in such fashion that the coat scanewhat resembled the garb of priest. Then he saturated a handke's chief with chiefororum and returned to the policemen at tay.

Cannon took him for a priest and bent down respectfully and kigsed the supposed priest's hand. As he did so Dr. Rorke said:

"This will do you good, my son," at the same time clapping the chieforoform-soaked handkerchief over the man's nose and mouth.

The drug took quick effect, and when Camnon was in a state of helplessness he was bundled into a patrol wagon and taken to the Flatbush Hospital.

Hundreds of wooden caskets were found, but not until Wednezday were unearthed four leaden caskets which gave promise of containing the body of the Admiral.

Three of them bore plates designating the names of the deceased.

The fourth showed superior solidity of workmanship. No plate was found on this casket, and it is supposed it was removed when another con was superimposed on R.

The leaden coffin was opened in the presence of Gen. orter, Col. Ba "y-Blanchard, the Second Secretary of the American Embasey, and Engineer Weiss, who has been directing the excavation.

The body was found to be well preserved owing to its being immersed in alcohol. It was wrapped in a short with a packing of straw and hay. Those present were immediately struck by the resemblance of the head to that on the medalions and busts of the States, where they will be interred with fitting ceremony and a monument raised to the man who founded the American may.
